Everyone loves the Google CDN right? Even Microsoft runs their own CDN.
 The problem is, they only host the most popular libraries.
 We host it all - JavaScript, CSS, SWF, images, etc!

Is it possible to add auto-update config for this lib @nulltask ?

nulltask commented on Jan 12

Nice suggestion! But it is impossible to be auto-update because the tar-ball doesn't contain built files. 🙄

PeterDaveHello commented on Jan 12

Owner

No, I found its npm package with dist folder, please check it out, thanks.

  add fileds for auto update

@PeterDaveHello Oh, my mistook. Thank you for your reply. I've just added fields to be auto update. But I can not squash these commits. (maybe #3650 is related issue.)
