IN A NUTSHELL:

North Iowa closes out its season just two games shy of a sixth consecutive trip to the Fraser Cup, falling to the division's number-two seed in a sweep.

FINAL WEEK'S RECAP:

For the first time in six years, the Fraser Cup championship tournament went without an appearance from the North Iowa Bulls following a shocking sweep in the Central Division finals at the hands of the La Crosse Freeze. North Iowa drew first blood in both games, though – Matt Dahlseide's backhanded shovel into the net just eight minutes into Friday's contest got the home team started off with the lead. After taking a 1-0 lead to the second period, the momentum went to the Freeze for good with goals from Clayton Lackey and Thomas Magnavite barely three minutes apart in the middle stanza. Magnavite took advantage of a North Iowa turnover in its own zone to rip one in over the shoulder of Colin Cain for a 3-1 lead with less than eight minutes left, and the Freeze were able to hold on for the win. Saturday, La Crosse was able to finish it off in their own building with a 4-3 overtime victory, despite scoring the opening goal again. Tyler Bump beat Will Graves on a power play before the midpoint of the first period to take a 1-0 lead. Penalties came at ominous times twice in the game for the Bulls, though – a Josh Arnold elbowing minor led to Clayton Lackey's tying goal just 31 seconds into the second period, and Lackey was able to score again just six seconds into a Bulls penalty early in the third. Mitch Dolter took a holding call off of the opening faceoff of overtime, and Matthew Francois was able to beat Cain with just six seconds remaining on the ensuing power play to end the game and the Bulls' season. Cain made 74 saves over the course of the final two games of his record-breaking season.

TWO'S COMPANY BUT 900-PLUS IS A CROWD:

Despite not getting the chance to play for the Fraser Cup national championship in Chicagoland, North Iowa was able to top the 20,000 mark in home attendance and averaged 910 fans per game to take the NA3HL attendance crown for the seventh straight year. Since the Bulls came into the league in 2011, no team has drawn more fans at home and no team has been able to snatch the single-season attendance crown away from North Iowa.

REVISIONIST HISTORY:

North Iowa didn't see much fall in terms of records in 2017-18, but the record books did not completely escape the Bulls' clutches this season. Some records were broken quite loudly – Colin Cain reset the team record for wins in a single regular season, taking the victory 27 times this past season. Others were broken rather quietly – Shane Bernhardson's 36 assists snuck past the team's previous record for a defenseman, with Connor Langfield registering 35 assists in North Iowa's first national championship season in 2012-13 (Adam Orn matched it in 2015-16). Bernhardson also shattered Orn's record for assists by a defenseman with 66 in his career, breaking the previous record by a dozen. His +143 career plus/minus mark ranks second in team history, and far outpaces Ron Lindgren for the best mark in team history by a blueliner – his 121 games played also ranks second in team history. Finally, four players – Connor Clemons, Josh Arnold, Mitch Dolter and Tyler Bump – registered their 100th points with the Bulls this past season.

NO FEAR OF COMMITMENT:

Todd Sanden's club had one of its best seasons in franchise history when it came to college and North American Hockey League advancement. As of April 1, nine current and former Bulls had made commitments to play for college hockey programs next season. Former North Iowa goaltender Josh Benson made his commitment in late March to move from the NAHL's Fairbanks Ice Dogs to NCAA Division I Sacred Heart next season. Another commitment wasn't so much to the service of the sport of hockey, but to the service of the country – defenseman and Forest City native Jaxon Jones accepted an appointment to the United States Military Academy in West Point, New York in late March. Jones will continue playing at the ACHA Division II level for the Black Knights and will try out for the Academy's NCAA Division I squad. Four North Iowa players signed NAHL tenders for next year, a full 40 percent of the league total heading into the Fraser Cup tournament. Three other players saw time in a North Iowa uniform and in the NAHL during the course of the year.

MILESTONE WATCH:

The 2017-18 campaign certainly did not lack for milestones, for better or for worse – the Bulls landed their 300th win in franchise history in a 17-0 win over the Rochester Ice Hawks prior to Christmas, setting a single-game home scoring record in the process and coming up just one game short of the team's all-time single-game mark. Some milestones weren't so positive, though – a 2-0 loss to La Crosse following the Christmas break marked the first-ever shutout loss on North Iowa's home ice, snapping a streak of 157 consecutive home games with at least one Bulls goal. A 3-0 loss to the eventual Fraser Cup champion Metro Jets two weeks later marked the franchise's first-ever shutout loss by three goals or more. The loss to La Crosse snapped an incredible string of 34 games in a row without a regulation loss, including the final two games of the 2017 Silver Cup championship tournament. The Game 1 division final loss to La Crosse was the first time that the Bulls had ever been beaten on home ice, and La Crosse finished the first playoff sweep in North Iowa Bulls history with its victory at the Green Island Ice Arena the following night.
