ELECTRIC CITY SHAG CLUB

"Best Little Shag Club in Dixie"

SHAG "N" TALES

Aug. 2017

Hello Shaggers,

Where has our summer gone? Fun time with family and friends have filled June and July. Let's have the good times continue in August. Be safe and have fun.

We have experienced great crowds at Wild Wings during the summer. Thank you for your continuous support of ECSC. As many of you know, we are blessed to have a weekly dance venue. This occurs because our members support and enjoy the food and beverages offered by Wild Wings. Members have and continue to be cordial to all our members and guests. I know that the sound equipment provided by management is at times hard to balance. Thank you ECSC for being respectful, understanding and supportive to our DJs

Norma and I were able to attend the ACSC summer workshop July 14-16 in Concord, N.C. Lake Norman hosted a great workshop. Over 400 people danced the weekend away. At the ACSC meeting we were introduced to the DJ association. A lively presentation included the background information of the association and present news that can be used by all member clubs.

Our next Board meeting is August 15 at the Anderson County Library at 6:00 pm. All members are invited to attend. Clarification of ECSC business can be obtained by attending and hearing correct news at the meeting. Recently I have to squelch incorrect club news that was circulating among our members. Please refrain from spreading rumors without merit among the membership. All club information is open to all ECSC members. When in doubt ask your Board.

SOS Fall Migration is around the corner. We are expecting a big contingence of ECSC members at NMB September 15-24. Our tea Party will be at the OD Arcade September 22 from 3-5:00pm. Let's show ACSC how we support SOS.

Our club hero this month is Pat Germanier. She is one of our silent volunteers who has been sending sympathy cards on behalf of our club to you. She has performed this duty out of respect for her ECSC family. Give Pat a big thank you for serving in this capacity.

Our weekly give away has been wonderful at Wild Wings. Let's give a big thumbs up to our weekly donors: Norma Chastain, Gail Kent, Frankie and Buck Buckner, Suzi Petratos and Jimmy Whitt, Mary and Micky Medlin, Shirley and Jimmy Bayne, Janine Rahn, Sheri and Larry Bowie, Bonnie and Bingo Valine, Martha Moody, Kathy and Skip Smith and Karen Burdette.

It is now time to consider our slate of officers for 2018. In a few months all elected Board positions will be open. Please examine the responsibilities for President, Vice President Secretary, Treasurer, 3 Members at large in the by-laws. I challenge you to serve the club as a productive leader on the Board.

SERVICE, SACRIFICE, and WELCOME

Don

Gregg Whitt

Born In Pasadena, Texas

Hobbies.. Flying, Clemson Football, Spending time with children and Grandchildren

Met my wife at Clemson Fraternity Party

I have always loved to dance. My wife, Shirley and I particularly enjoy shag dancing and beach music.

I was born in Pasadena, Tx moved to Charlotte, NC at age 4, and to Anderson, SC at age 11. Attended McCants Junior High and graduated from T.L.Hanna High School. Graduated from Clemson University in 1978. I met my future wife, Shirley McAbee (a West side Graduate) and we were married August 5th, 1977 (40 years this August) Shirley and I started Professional Personnel Associates, Inc. in 1983 and have been recruiting ever since.

I received my Private Pilot license in high school (1974) and have been flying ever since.

Currently the Senior Flight Instructor for the Clemson University Flying Club.

Shirley and I have four children, Jennifer, Steven, Daniel and Olivia.

We also have four grandchildren, Aidan (age 10), Caiflin (age 9), William (age 8)and Ella (age6).

Grandchildren are "AWESOME"!!!

She asked me to tell her the 3 words every girl wants to hear. So I whispered "I can shag!" in her ear.

Thank goodness Sept. is one month away
Then we can start counting down for SOS on the 18th
To save us from the heat.
